The Virginia Enterprise gives not a very beautiful picture of Pioche and its moral aspects. The Enterprise saya: Pioche is overrun with as desperate a viass of scoundress as probably ever effected any mining town on this coast, and the law is virtually a dead letter. Murders and attempted murders are almost of daily occurrence, and the six-shooter and howie-knife are the only arguments used in settling the most tritling difficulties. The Resympt of July 17 arguments used in settling the most trif-ling difficulties. The Record of July 17 says "unless a stop is put to the prevail-ing ruffianism, the people themselves will be compelled to adopt means outside the forms of law for their own protection and for the preservation of peace and order." A Citizen's Protective Union, was formed in Pioche sometime since, was formed in Pioche sometime since, but it seems they either sympathize with the ruffians or that the lawless element is too powerful for them. It is high referred to in our columns as having had is too powerful for them. It is high time that something should be done, for as matters now stand the name of Pioche has become a by-word of reproach and a synonym for murder and lawlessness throughout the State.

name of Pioche has become a by-word of reproach and a synonym for murder and lawlessness throughout the State." reproach and a synenym for murder and lawiessness throughout the State."
ought to cause good citizens here to pause and reflect upon the state of affairs by which they are surrounded. It is true that our County Jail has been overflowing with prisoners awaiting the action of the Grand Jury upon various charges of felony, including three for murder, and that the Grand Jury, composed of good citizens of the county, has acted promptly upon these cases and presented true bills upon these cases and presented true bills of indictment in each instance. The Grand Jury did its whole duty to the State, but before adequate justice can be done in these cases the parties indicted must be tried by jury, and right there is rub. In the absence of sound views of rub. In the absence of sound views of human rights and the majesty of the law, a sickly sentimentality is too often used to temper justice with mercy, and upon the merest pretext the guilty are turned loose to prey upon society. We turned loose to prey upon society. We believe, however, that there is now a better public sentiment, but that sentiment needs to be nurtured with care in order that it may bear good fruit.

Book Sales. -Mr. Redewell, canvasser for Bancroft, has made good headway among the business men and miners in Pioche in obtaining orders for "Livingstone in Africa," "Seward's Travels,"
"Underground," "Life of Napoleon III," etc. He next purposes calling upon families to solicit orders for Bibles of all kinds, "The World of Wonders" and other works suitable to the fireside.
Orders will also be taken for American planos and organs rousis. pianos and organs, music, etc.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY .- The large attendance yesterday upon the funeral of Mr. Sherwood's child afforded evidence of the esteem in which the family is held in this community. The procession formed at Mr. Sherwood's residence; thence moved up Main, Meadow Valley and Cedar streets to the Episcopal Church, where the funeral services were performed by Rev. H. L. Badger. The remains were then conveyed through Cedar and Main streets to the cemetery. There was a very large attendance.

TRIAL JURORS.—Forty-eight. jurors have been drawn, pursuant to the statute, to serve during the August term of the District Court. From this number it is supposed there will be no great diffi-culty in selecting twelve competent men to try the several criminal cases to come before the District Court next month. A list of the jurors drawn will appear to-morrow.

STANDARD TIME.—The lack of a standard time & Pioche is felt by every one, or at least by the whole business community. Having observed the great difference in time, as indicated by different watches and clocks, it has occurred to us that it would be well if some standard time could be agreed upon and all be governed by it. As matters stand at present, a man may be supcenaed as a witness or summoned on a jury and so required to appear in Court at a certain hour, and yet he would hardly know what hour was meant. Without intending it, he may cause delay in the trans-action of the business of the Court, and when called to an account, he would be entitled to full exculpation by showing that the time he with he that the time by which he was governed was not as fast as that of the Court. Yesterday our reporter visited the three jewelers' establishments in town, Wells, jewelers' establishments in town, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s and the State Bank of Nevada. He found his time to agree with that at the place he first visited; at the next place he found a difference of 1½ minutes, the next 4½, the next 4, and the next 6. This is not as bad as we thought it would be; yet there is a difference of 6 minutes between time on a certain street and time just around the corner. Then take the useless distinction between city time and mining time. corner. Then take the useless distinc-tion between city time and mining time, which is constantly leading to vexatious delays and many other annoyances. We are glad to learn that a chronometer has been ordered, and when it arrives we suggest that the watch-makers, banks and Courts be governed by it, and the difficulties mentioned herein will no longer be experienced.

NUISANCE CASE. - Another nuisance case was tried before Justice Stoutenburgh's Court yesterday. The defendant is a keeper of a restaurant on Meadow Valley street, and it was alleged that Valley street, and it was alleged that from the rear of his restaurant quantities of slops were allowed to find their way towards lower Main street, causing great annoyance to his neighbors and creating a nuisance. The defendant demanded and obtained a jury trial. After hearing the testimony, the jury were allowed to visit the scene of the alleged nuisance; argument by counsel enaged, and the argument by counsel ensued, and the case went to the jury. They failed to agree and were discharged. Another trial will be had.

Mn. Bidwell, Superintendent of the Globe silver mine, at Crescent City, in this county, arrived in town, yesterday. He gives a good account of mining operations in that part of the county. Mr. B. is at present working the Emerald (late Henderson) mine, and of the bullion from this mine he brought several bars which are from 974 to 975 fine. This is the third shipment, showing that Hiko District not only has the ore, but the means of reducing it to bullion.
